

Jeffersonville High School Athletic Director Larry Owens Announces Move to MLB Pipeline Baseball League

Jeffersonville, IN – May 12, 2025 – Jeffersonville High School is announcing that Athletic Director, Larry Owens, will be departing his role to pursue an exciting opportunity in the Appalachian League which is a summer collegiate baseball league that is part of the MLB and USA Baseball Prospect Development Pipeline. He will be taking on the position of Assistant Coach with the Johnson City Doughboys.

Throughout his tenure at Jeffersonville High School, beginning in 2022, Larry Owens has been a driving force behind a flourishing athletic program. His impactful leadership led to the development of state-of-the-art athletic facilities, the introduction of new IHSA sports, and notably, a state championship victory in boys' basketball. Larry's unwavering commitment to the student-athletes, coaches, and the entire Red Devil community has been deeply appreciated.

Owens expressed profound gratitude, stating, "I am deeply thankful for the opportunity Mrs. Pam Hall provided me." He further commented on the positive trajectory of Jeffersonville High School under the leadership of Mrs. Hall, her staff, and the GCCS administration, adding, "It's going to be exciting to witness their progress, and I'm grateful to have played a small part over the last three school years." The move to the MLB Pipeline Baseball League represents a significant step in his career, aligning with his passion for baseball and talent development. The MLB Pipeline along with USA Baseball is a leading platform for identifying and nurturing young baseball talent, and his experience in high school athletics will be a valuable asset to their organization.

We are deeply thankful for Larry's dedication and leadership in guiding our athletic program. Knowing his long-standing love and passion for baseball, we are incredibly proud of this opportunity for him and wish him the greatest success in this exciting new endeavor.

Jeffersonville High School will begin the search for a new Athletic Director immediately to ensure a smooth transition and continued success for its athletic programs.

Jeffersonville High School and the community extend their sincere gratitude for his years of service and wish Larry great success in this new endeavor.
